

EDUX 9905: Reflecting on Transformative Teaching and Learning

2 credits

Course Overview:

The ordinary experiences of our teaching days are the essence of our practice. Using a guide to reflect on these experiences is an entry to improving our teaching” (Hole and McEntee).

As a member of a small online PLC discussion group, participants in this class will step through various guided reflection processes to analyze and examine their experiences in the summer course and their experiences implementing one of their summer course goals. Using online video conferencing technology, the PLC will conclude by participating in a coaching conversation facilitated by the course instructor that will provide a perfect face-to-face platform for self-reflection, idea sharing, and make a determination about the impact on their professional practice going forward better.

Objectives:

By the end of the course, the participant will:

- Engage in a professional learning community.
- Reflect on setting and implementing a goal from EDUX 9904 using research-based tools.
- Participate in the Guided Reflection Protocol process for individual and shared reflection.
- Demonstrate what was learned through a coaching conversation.
- Refine teaching practice based on guided reflective practice.

Course Relation to Standards

This course aligns with the standards for the National Board for Professional Teaching:

- Teachers are committed to students and their learning.
- Teachers know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students.
- Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning.

- Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience.
- Teachers are members of learning communities.

Course Structure and Submitting Coursework

- EDUX 9904 is a prerequisite to this class.
- This is a 6-7 week course where you will analyze, evaluate, reflect, and refine the strategies you are executing in your classroom or school role based on a goal from EDUX 9904 via an online discussion board forum with a professional learning community and the course instructor.
- The Protocol assignment in Part 5 is submitted via email to the course instructor.
- There will be a culminating reflective coaching conversation via an online video conference site with the PLC and set up by the course instructor. Participants need access to technology to participate in online discussion forum and video conference.

Course Assignments

Part 1 - Engage in a Professional Learning Community

Educators continue to share the need to be part of a community when engaging in professional learning. Engage in discussion board posts with your EDUX 9905 professional learning community. When a discussion prompt is posted, compose and post your response within the given time frame and reply to at least one of your colleagues in the given time frame.

Part 2 - Importance of Reflection

Use the resources provided by your instructor to build your background knowledge in relation to the reflective practices you will engage in during this course and respond to the prompts in the given time frame. Reply to at least one of your colleagues in the given time frame.

Part 3 - Plan

Analyze your Professional Learning Plan from EDUX 9904 and select one goal that you are currently implementing (or have implemented) in your current school assignment. Complete the discussion post addressing the instructor provided prompt within the given time frame. Reply to at least one of your colleagues within the given time frame.

Part 4 - Implementation

Analyze the successes and challenges of implementing the goal you selected in Part 3. Complete the discussion post addressing the instructor provided prompt within the given time frame. Reply to at least one of your colleagues within the given time frame.

Part 5 - Evaluation and Synthesis

Engage in the Guided Reflection Protocol \(for individual reflection\) to demonstrate the process of deep, thoughtful guided reflection. A Protocol creates a structure that makes it safe to ask more challenging questions. The point of using this protocol is not to do the protocol well for your colleagues or your instructor but to have an in-depth, insightful conversation with yourself in writing about teaching and learning in order to improve your teaching practice.

Part 6 - Culminating Video Conference

Participate in a video conference with your instructor and other course participants to publicly share your deepest reflections and evaluation of one implementation goal from EDUX 9904. During the video conference, we will be engaging in the "What? So What? Now What? Guided Reflection Protocol \(for shared reflection\)". To prepare for the conference, review the protocol and be prepared to answer the 3 guiding questions using the sub-questions provided to deepen your thinking and your responses. You will be guided to share your responses during the coaching conference.

Part 7 - COURSE REFLECTION AND EVALUATION

Engage in a final forum discussion about your learning experiences in this course. Use the discussion prompts provided to guide your responses. Your responses to each prompt should be at least two paragraphs. Please respond to at least one of your colleagues in the given time frame.
